Fun little time waster. You are stranded on a beach. Chill out and build stuff. Cute graphics. Simple game play.. The game was short, sweet and simple. I was able to complete the game withn 1-2 hours tops.. Buy only if on sale. It's nice but I literally finished this game in half an hour, from time of purchase to time of completion, and I wasn't even rushing. I like the happy background music and the simplicity of the game. Just get it if you are up for simple clicking and process of elimination. Just don't expect anything fancy.. The game was short, sweet and simple. I was able to complete the game withn 1-2 hours tops.. Had this game a long time on my wishlist, and on summer sale 2018 I bought it finally (1,15u20ac) 9 minutes later I asked for refund. Why? Why not give it a chance?!? Because in these 9 minutes saw all! Well, not really all. I did not make all of the possible 30 item combinations. But it was too hard to do these 9 minutes and do nothing but wait for items. Game is split in two parts. One on the beach, other in a house. Both times is same waiting for items appear to combine them. Six different items per part. It is simply too boring! You can click on the things you got from making combinations, but this is really all! Watching a real tree grow is more exciting than this. Other review wrote that you can get all trophies in 15 minutes. So if you want have some of the most boring minutes in your life just to have another 100% game in your library, you should buy this "game" (waiting simulator is better), otherwise do yourself something good and avoid this piece of software.. I know that this game is quite simplistic when it comes to quality of animation and charater. Even with that in mind, I was still expecting more. I thought there would be more then very little animation and just little or nothing in general. The main characters do nothing but sit there in suspended animation. No quests, no anything but two item combining. Very disappointed. I finished all that I could do in less then 10 minutes (and that was generous).. I really like this game! Very simple and to the point with relaxing tropical background music. I rate it a solid 8/10 bananas! Good job Joystick Knights, I am eager to see what you come out with next! Very cute one! Actually it seems like a little bit of alchemy (that game u2018bout elementu2019s creating) or some crafting-based games that was settled on the beach. Btw - nice tropical music! What I didnu2019t like - game ends pretty fast.
